“What Home Means to Me” Poster Contest
Entry Rules

2013 National Grand Prize Winner
Kayla Padgett, Cookeville Housing Authority

Poster Specifications:
- Theme – “What Home Means to Me”.
- Size – no larger than 22” x 28”.
- Media – contestant may use any art media (marker, crayon, paint, collage, textiles, etc.) but please consider that posters will need to be packaged, mailed and reproduced.
- All contestants must sign a release making their entry the property of NAHRO and permitting duplication/publication thereof (attached).
- All contestants are asked to provide a short narrative on the inspiration, vision and importance of their poster design (attached).

Eligibility: Contest participation is open to all children residing in affordable housing.

Age Categories:
Elementary:  K - 5th grade
Middle:  6th – 8th grade
High:  9th – 12th grade

Housing Development Competition:
Each housing development should judge for each category and select a winner. You should only send a maximum of three posters to TAHRA. TAHRA does not judge within each of the age categories.

State Competition:
Poster submissions will first be judged by a panel from TAHRA and the winner from each age category will be submitted to NAHRO for judging. Posters will not be returned. If any reproductions are desired by applicant, they should be done before submitting.

National Competition:
A NAHRO panel of judges will select twelve national honorees who will receive a $100 US savings bond and a framed certificate. The national Grand Prize honoree will receive a $500 savings bond and the honoree and his/her family will be provided with transportation to and lodging at NAHRO’s March 2014 Legislative Conference in Washington, DC and a framed copy of their original artwork and will tour Capitol Hill.

Deadline: All submissions must be received by July 19, 2013.

Questions: Contact Donna Baumgartner at tahra@att.net or at 615.776.1562.